“ Dear Carol,

To say the words "I'm sorry" seem inadequate, but I'm going to say them anyways because I can't express it any other way: I am so very sorry to hear of Charlie's passing. I have a lot of good memories of Charlie, and also great memories of you and Charlie both. We had some good times and some good parties at your cottage. But aside from the party times, Charlie has been a good and loyal friend too. I remember when Blair died - you and Charlie were right there for my sister Tracy and our entire family. Hard to believe that was so many years ago - February 1988 to be exact. Time passes so quickly. It's also hard to believe we have all known each other for over 20 years. I remember lots of little things over the years - Charlie bringing us the extra "Welfare Cheese", him cooking up a storm in your cottage kitchen, the both of you always so welcoming whenever people popped in for a visit, my son Mike going fishing with little Charlie and barbecuing up their catch, the get-together when you folks renewed your wedding vows, Charlie popping in for visits at my house when Chris and I were still married, all people we met at your cottage who were so nice to us country "hicks" - there are just so many fond memories. My husband Bill shares Charlie's birthday, except he was born 10 years to the day after Charlie. If Charlie happened to be at the cottage on that day - January 29 - he always stopped in and had a visit with him. He has good memories of those times spent with Charlie just one-on-one - two guys celebrating their birth date. Charlie will be missed by the friends he made here in Canada. It never seemed to matter where I saw him when he was here in Wheatley - it could be the grocery store, the post office, on the street, wherever - he always had a big hug and time for a chit-chat. I am so sorry for his suffering and his passing, but he is in a better place now. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. God bless you all. We are thinking of you.
