“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ *Our love one's death bring us face-to-face with the fact that they are gone too soon. So when a love one has past, no matter who we are it is painful. God not only knows but he cares! Said Jesus: "Do not two sparrows sell for a coin of small value? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father's knowledge....You are worth more than many sparrows.-Matthew 10:29,31. He knows your sorrow and pain. Since emotion tests our very fiber be strong and know that others share your grief. "Happy are those who mourn, since they will be comforted. “ I'm forwarding my heartfelt sympathy to the Hinton & Hudson families: We have all experienced the loss of a loved one to the enemy death, and the emotional pain is all the same. Our hearts break as we see our love ones, get sick, grow old and die. Our Grand Creator feels the pain that you are going through. He had to watch his son Jesus, suffer at the hand of his enemies and die. But, before that, Jesus gave hope to the man who died next to him, by saying: “You will be in paradise” Luke 23:43. Our Heavenly Father holds out a promise that one day soon he will wipe all tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more (Revelation 21:3-5). Our Creator knows our DNA, to bring back to life, those who have died. He promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear Jesus voice and come out. Until the resurrection becomes a reality, hold on to the precious memories stored in your hearts. Proverbs 3:5-7; Isaiah 26:19 & John 5:28-29###imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##
