

Mr. Dwayne Edward Lewis

September 9, 1958 - January 23, 2023

In Loving Memory of Dwayne Edward Lewis was born on September 9, 1958 in Detroit, MI to Annie Bell Clay (who preceded him in death) and Howard Simmons (who preceded him death).

Dwayne accepted Christ at an early age.

Dwayne attended Detroit Public Schools. He was the fourth oldest child out of five children: Clifford, Debra, Alton Jr. (who preceded him in death), and Kimberly.

After high school, he worked at General Motors as a line worker for ten years. After he stopped working at GM, he started working for himself doing home improvement jobs, which he was good at. He also had a few people who were very close to him whom he called his brothers and sister who were there and helped him when he got sick. But a special shout-out to Jason (Ponytail). He was there until his last day. Even when Wayne wanted him leave him alone, Ponytail was right there still getting on his nerves making sure he had what he needed.

He had four beautiful children: LaNiika, Dwayne Jr., Martell (who preceded him in death) and Iesha; and two granddaughters, Emmani and NaKeya whom he leaves to cherish his memory.

Dwayne was known for his sense of humor, always cracking a joke and the love for his children and granddaughters.

He also has a host of other family and friends.
