“ My condolences to the family. Dwight and I were classmate at Sumter County High School, the class of "72". Several years ago Dwight Facebook profile showed up on my page. A pleasant surprise. Clicked on a caught up with a classmate I hadn't seen since graduation. I was so saddened to hear of his passing September on 9. Actually more saddened because he wouldn't be able to cast his vote. This was a week before the Class of 72's, were having our 52nd class reunion, A Birthday Bash for our 70th birthday. Dwight was added to the honor roll on 15 September 2024. Number 41 of 183!! When I checked the election results this morning my first thought, was he was rolling over in that grave. Today I just had this urge to check and see if an obituary was on line. Amazing front and center there it was. What a beautiful Homegoing Celebration it was. So glad to see the love poured out from family members. To Dwight I wish you could drop a rock from above, you know the rest. Again my sincere condolences are extended to you all. Doris A. Turner
