“ I grew up with Earl Knox III in Oak Park, MI from 2nd grade through high school. Many of my fondest memories of my formative years include EKIII, and by extension, “Big Earl” as we called Mr. Knox affectionately (to EKIII only, not in Mr. Knox’ presence, given his imposing physical presence).

While Big Earl definitely presented an imposing physical presence to EKIII’s friends, he was a gentle giant in demeanor. Big Earl always quietly asked how we were doing and treated us respectfully (I guess EKIII didn’t really talk about us that much).

Any parent’s greatest legacy is their children. I have had the honor and privilege to call EKIII one of my dear friends for nearly four decades and my respect for him has grown greater as the years have passed by. “Big Earl, your legacy is strongly intact! Please say hi to Mrs. Knox for me.”
