“ He Spoiled us all with His Love...

From making us feel welcome in the Woods home, caring about our well being to showering us with gifts, laughter and forever Blessing us with fun times and great memories. He was the best playmate to his Grand Babies and despite what us parents said, it mad him happiest giving them the stickiest goodies, loudest and best toys, the best parties and being the best PaPa one could imagine. The fibers of love he shared is evident in the wonderful life he gave Mrs Woods, those same fibers were woven into the souls of his sons and blanket all the family in the future. He spoiled us all with his love and will forever be missed but will be forever in our hearts and the forefront of our thoughts... especially during celebrations. Family continue his legacy and spoil each other with Love.

“ Earl and Marie were one of my first clients and even though the finding a home was a long process during that process I was blessed to get to know Earl and Marie. They were great to get to know. I am sure Earl will be missed by his family and friends and I am saddened by his passing.
