

Mr. Eddie B. Andrews

January 5, 1950 - March 21, 2016

The Journey:

Eddie B. Andrews Sr. was born on January 5, 1950 in Brundidge, Alabama to Alto Lee Andrews and Annie Pearl Jones; both preceded him in death.

Eddie Sr. moved to Detroit, Michigan at the age of nine. He graduated from Murray Wright High School and went on to attend Michigan State University. In 1973, he began his career with Ford Motor Company which expanded 30 plus years. While employed at Ford Eddie also served as a Union Rep, and when Eddie retired he remained active with the Local 600 UAW.

Eddie married his high school sweetheart Marsha Lyons and from this union three children were born. He was an active member at St. Timothy United Methodist Church where he served on the Trustee Board until the time of his death. His favorite thing was spending quality time with his family and friends. Eddie had a unique and special bond with his children, and grandchildren, as he talked about them all the time. He would always make it clear that he loves no one, more than the other. You could find Eddie at Omega Grill with his restaurant buddies or catching the breeze while reading his paper on the porch. He also had a love for style; Eddie would get dressed up and make sure he told you how “good” he was looking.

“ People Come Into Your Life For A Reason

People come into your life for a Reason, a Season or a Life Time. When you know which one it is, you will know what to do for that person.

When someone is in your life for a Reason, it is usually to meet a need you have expressed. They have come to assist you through a difficulty, to provide you with guidance and support, to aid you emotionally, or spiritually. They may seem like a God send and they are.

They are there for the reason you need them to be. Then, without any wrong doing on your part or at inconvenient time, this person will say or so do something to bring the relationship to an end. Sometimes they walk away. Some times they die. Sometimes they act up and force you to take a stand.

What we must realize is that our need has been met, our desire fulfilled, their work is done. The prayer you sent up has been answered and now it is time to move on.

Some people come into your life for a Season, because your turn has come to share, grow or learn. They bring you an experience of peace or make you laugh. They teach you something you may have never done. They usually give you an unbelievable amount of Joy.

I have taught you all I can, I have given you the best, and I have loved you with all my heart. I have provided you with guidance, and have assisted you through you difficulties, I have nursed your hurts, rejoiced with you in your accomplishments.

“As for me, my Season here has come to an end, I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have kept the faith, Rejoice for Me.

Believe it, it is real But only for a Season

We take all that we have learned from Eddie we share it with others, and the Love of Eddie, will live on forever in our the hearts, and in the hearts of all those who Loved him.

Uncle Eddie, was the epitome of family. His first love was God. His children Eddie Jr., Marcia, and Robert were his life. His grandchildren held his heart. Uncle Eddie has a compassionate love for his family and friends. Most of all he share a bond with many of us that will never end. Stay strong family, and know that he is with you. His spirit lives on. God has given us a chance to witness a job well done. Love is everything, your niece Gail Andrews
