In Loving Memory Of;

On a sunny day on January 18, 1950 a beautiful baby girl was born to Sallie and Albert King. The baby was named Eddie Lou. Sallie introduced the new baby girl to her brothers Fred and Ted. Big brother Fred named her “Baby Sister” after they were introduced to each other and the name held and she became the wonderful “Baby Sister” we all grew up with.

In 1955 Eddie enrolled as a kindergartner at Chaney Elementary School. Eddie would stand on the corner after school crying waiting for her brothers to pick her up to walk a half block home. Eddie excelled in school attending Pelham Middle School, Murray Wright, and Highland Park Community College where she graduated and obtained her Associate Degree in Nursing. All who knew Eddie would know she loved her books and music she would walk around with a book and/or newspaper in her face all the time. Eddie also loved to snack on pumpkin seeds and lemons with salt, she was also a great cook specializing in spaghetti, homemade pizzas, and ice cream sandwiches. Eddie had the biggest heart and loved with her heart and soul. She was the best mother to her kids and they were still her babies even when they became adults. Eddie loved her grandkids and bragged about them often. Eddie was the greatest sister to her siblings and always the life of the party when they were together.
