“ This is the Green Family in South Beloit. Sorry we couldn't make it but we remember the plum jelly and pear preserves that mamma would make and Eddie would get cases and what was funny was when he would come back the next time, he would bring back the cases with empty jars in them. We always looked forward to our visits. Love you all.

“ I have a favorite memory to share of my cousin-in-love Eddie, Sr. He and my cousin Carolyn were significantly a couple and they stopped by our home on their way to their high school prom! As I remember, Carolyn’s sister (Cuzn) Inez and her boyfriend Dwayne, also significant, were attending the prom as well. Pictures were taken and as a young girl of about 10 years old, to see them all dressed so elegantly was very exciting!! Both couples married after college and were in each other’s wedding.

Many years later we’ve arrived at the inevitable. Our hearts are saddened and we’re thinking of you Carolyn, and family members. What a challenging time and difficult circumstances to suddenly lose a loved one.

A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best! No one has the perfect words to make your sadness go away, but may you find comfort in knowing how many people wished they did.

This world has its seasons of sadness, its partings and tearful good-byes. Your memories...if they bring tears, let them be cleansing. If they bring laughter, let them be warm. If they remind you of happier moments, let them be shelter to you through the storm.

God will gift you and family with support and love as you also transition into a new season. While we will not physically be in Michigan our thoughts and Spirit will, along with representation in floral design. Tonight, when you look up, don’t think of them as stars. Think of them as porch lights welcoming your loved one safely home.

Eddie is dearly loved, respected, greatly missed and will always be remembered. Job WELL DONE Eddie Sr.! Rest in His care.

With Love, Hugs, Sincere Condolences and Prayers –
