“ I will miss u too Eddie you were my Brothers best friend growing up. Now u and Chris Cohill are back together again in heaven. You went from friend to family when you Married are cousin Cheryl. You put a smile on the face of many who knew u and was the kindest of them all. Mr. And Mrs Payne raised you well and you passed that on to your children. Again u are going to be truly missed. Love Cynthia Cohill and Family

“ I am really gonna miss Uncle Sir! (as my baby calls him). He was not only my uncle but he was my dad when my father was not in my life. Uncle Sir would always make you crack up laughing whenever he was around. So many memories to cherish. From the times when I was little and you would scare the heck out of me driving like a maniac in all your fast cars to buying me my first pair of name-brand gym shoes in the 5th grade (some snake-skin Adidas....couldn't tell me ISH after that). Everybody loved Uncle Sir!!! The last GREAT memory that I have is of all of us playing basketball on Gilbert this past summer (Memorial Day, maybe?). Uncle Sir was putting up them shots like he was a former NBA player! Pretty quick for a short, plump dude! LOL!!! I can't believe that he is gone and it sure will take some time for this to sink in. But I know that he is smiling down on us and don't worry, I'll be looking out for my cousins (just as my aunt asked me to). I love and miss you Uncle Sir!!!!!!! :(

“ I've known Eddie Lee Ray Sr. for 29+ years. How did we meet? Funny you ask..well he went half on a baby with my mother and then came me! There are so many great memories that I have of him. Whenever he was around there wasn't a dull moment! I have so many stories to share with his grandchildren over the years, because he left behind so many memories good and some bad. ... Gotta take the good with the bad. Stories to make you smile, cry, laugh or do all three at the same time! Daddy you will be missed, hope you can rest peacefully now. Love, Chereka. .
