“ Aunt Eddie Mae you will be missed. I always thought you were sooo stylish, with your big afro and bell bottom jeans. You were so cool, and I saw you could wear glasses and still be cute! Rest easy, and we'll see each other again.

“ Auntie,
*First and foremost, rest in paradise.
Your presence will most definitely be missed.
I have many memories spending time with you, Biafra and our family.*

Your words of encouragement, your unique laugh, and realism, were everlasting qualities that can not be replaced.

While you look and smile upon your family and friends, I ask that you help to guide us, strengthen us, and keep us safe from harm.

Auntie I miss you, and you will always have a place in my heart.

*Love your niece,
Melissa*
