

Mr. Eddie Charles Sampson

March 16, 1926 - October 18, 2015

A Service of Love Celebrating The Life and Home Going Of Eddie Charles Sampson:

EDDIE CHARLES SAMPSON affectionately called Ed, was born on March 16, 1926 in Abbeville, Georgia. He was a twin and the third of six born to the union of Emma & Phillip Charles Sampson. His twin died at an early age.

He confessed Christ as a young man. He attended Kinsman Redeemer Church, under the leadership of Pastor, Anthony Jones until his health failed.

His early learning years were mostly in the South, he volunteered in the United States Army from June 27, 1944 thru October 26, 1946 during the World War II. He received an honorable discharge.

He worked for the Chrysler Corporation and various other jobs to support his family.

Eddie moved to Detroit, MI in 1951.

In 1950 he was wed to Corrine Clark, in 1951, he married Norma Ruth Rambus and in 1960, he married Iris Black, all whom preceded him in death.

Those who knew Eddie, knew his love for life, love for his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, his niece, Evelyn Mary Champion, whom he loved dearly (preceded him in death). He had a love for music, singing, watching western movies and social justice. To his family he will always be remembered for his cooking, cool style of dress, his quick wit and a story to tell, hilarious jokes, outspoken words, love of cars, visiting family and friends, his generosity and most of all his way of doing things his way. He was truly loved by his family and friends.

Daughters, Bernadine, Phyllis and grandson, Maurice unselfishly cared for him. The family truly thank you and everyone who helped out during his extended illness.

Eddie will forever be remembered...

Cemetery Details

Great Lakes National Cemetery

4200 Belford Rd.
Holly, MI 48442

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Eddie Charles Sampson

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ *Joyce, may God be with you and your family if their is any thing I can do for you all you have to do is let me know when and where ,Roger sends his sympathy also ,just remember he will always live in your memories
love rita*

rita twilley - October 21, 2015 at 06:18 AM

*Dad, my heart is heavy and sad for my own selfish reasons, I want you here with me. Then my faith lets me know that it's all in divine order and you are in a much better place and time. I appreciate all you've ever done for me and I know that we will see each other again. You were not perfect, but who is? You let me be me and you loved me unconditionally, the great times we spent, the laughter and even the pain will never be forgotten. Because, you were the best Dad I had, you were so real that all my friends still speak well of you and how they loved to spend time at our house as a kid. We have a big family and its grown bigger and just think it all began with you. As you take your well-deserved rest, please give my love to Momma and the rest of the family and let them I miss them so and will see them again. Until then, I will just kiss you goodnight.
~Just Me, Joyce*

Joyce Terrell - October 22, 2015 at 12:00 AM