“ Dear Eddie,

I can't begin to tell you how much you meant to me personally. I will not be able to bounce any ideas off of you, get your thoughts and perspectives on things, and just to hear your voice any longer. The pain I am experiencing is REAL. I miss you so much but God needed you more than I did. He knew you were tired, in pain, and in need of a fresh start. I love you forever!! My deepest sympathies and condolences to your families.

“ I keep posting things that remind me of you and even though they are funny, I get sad because I know it won't be met with one of your witty responses. I chose the purple candle for you my friend and I hope you get to dance with the Purple One this Princemas.

“ Eddie Tillis and I became instant friends when I arrived at Oak Park High School in the fall of 1982 (our Sophomore year). We would joke about how "Sophomores Suffered More!!", look forward to new Prince videos and spirit week, and talked about classes, teachers, and homework. Great times. Later in life, we stayed connected through Facebook posts. I will truly miss his presence. God be with the Tillis Family, Eddie's closest acquaintances, and my fellow OPHS c/o 85 classmates at this most difficult time.
