Wow! my friend, my friend. He is one of the men every young girl need when she works with a bunch of guys. I'm going to miss you and I miss the times you always comes to my desk with that cursing, then you come back and say, "I love you Ms. Sue and I'm praying with you and for your family". Eddie was always a singer - we sang a lot of Gospel songs (on the job). Just a God-fearing giving Man. I love u my friend, rest, rest for the weary.

“ My heart is very saddened because we lost a God-fearing, humble and most delicate person, Eddie Walters. Every time I would see him, he always tell the truth on a individual. I ask him, Eddie, how is my hair? And he will say , it's very ugly, Tina. I'm really gonna to missed his humor gestures, smile and trash talking.

“My Deepest Condolences to The Eddie Lee Walters Sr Family" Eddie was greatest coworker & person to know, to too many funny stories to tell, he could be quite the practical joker at times and he could be very serious on certain issues, he shared his wisdom on life, family and experiences, he was several years my senior so I naturally gave him respect and he respected you, he was like having that funny uncle at work, he made trying times at Ddot tolerable I've only known him to be kind to others & offering a hand to folks in need, his funny jokingly wit & kind demeanor will be sadly missed, our lose is heavens gain.
