“ Just catching up with this sad news. My condolences to all his family and friends. His loss truly hurts. Eddie was genuinely nice, enormously talented and a true friend. I met and knew him through his music. He was a great musician and made me sound and be better everytime we played. He was a generous friend and I can't think of a time he ever turned down to a request. Hope to make music with you again on the other side, Eddie!

“ I met Eddue on 10/13/05...a day I will never forget! He went on to become the great love of my life. He was so handsome, kind, intelligent, wise, talented, humble, sweet and thoughtful! I admired him so much! I am so sorry that we lost such an amazing human! His presence will be GREATLY missed!

My deepest condolences to his family and friends,

“ Uncle Ed, you were the smartest and a very giving person. You made us all losers in scrabble with your consistent 40 points or more words when it was your turn. I will miss our talks about computers, electronics, music, cars, bikes and technology, and picking up the phone to ask you a question (you always answered or returned my calls). You showed me and others love by always visiting with golf clubs, bikes, TV’s or some other gadget that you thought we needed. Whenever I asked you a question you always had the answer beyond what I ever thought of and made me feel like I could fix anything by being a mini female Ed, and with your instructions that were better than the manual I would always try and have to call you about what I couldn’t fix right the first time. Thank you for being Uncle Ed.

You were on your time and showed up when it was your time to be present, you were our Ed who was coming when he was needed to be there! Not many words you would say but you would speak when you had something to say. I will miss you and have some great memories to cherish... especially how your face would light up when Granny said “Hey Buddy” or when Stefanie called you “Sunshine”! I Love You and will miss your physical presence... Your Favorite Niece, Renae.

“ Denise and all of Eddie's Family, My wife Pat and I were both shocked and saddened to hear the news of Eddie's passing. Me especially since I have had the pleasure of knowing and playing music with Eddie for the past two years or so in the group The M3 Project. Eddie graciously hosted us at his studio mostly every Wednesday evening for band rehearsals. He was a gentle giant of a person and a player and will be sorely missed. RIP Eddie, until we can jam again. Joe Marino
