

Mr. Edmund Leon Henderson

December 11, 1940 - February 5, 2016

Celebrating The Life Of Edmund Leon Henderson:

Edmund Leon Henderson was born December 11, 1940 in Lima, Ohio to the late Dennis and Irene Henderson.

Leon graduated high school from Lima Senior High School in 1959. He continued his education at Kentucky State University (KSU) in Frankfort, Kentucky where he received a Bachelor of Science in Music Education and Minor in French in 1962. During his time at Kentucky State he was actively involved in the KSU Music Club and Dance Band, as well as, the Greek organization Omega Psi Phi where he would serve as chapter president.

He worked many jobs from delivering newspapers and working in the local bowling alley as a young child to working as an educator, autoworker, and musician in his adult years. A gifted musician, he freely gave of his talent playing tenor saxophone as one of the members of the Contemporary Jazz Quintet recording two albums and playing various concerts.

Leon joined Glenda Monford in holy matrimony on February 15, 1966; they were married for 49 years.

His favorite pastime included listening to music and dabbling in mathematics. He was an avid reader of anything electronic. Most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family and going out to eat.

Leon departed this life on February 5, 2016.
