

Mr. Edward Lindsay

September 18, 1931 - April 1, 2024

On September 18, 1931, in the city of Rockport, Indiana, Edward Lindsay was born to the union of Edward Nathaniel and Ruth Crawley Lindsey.

Edward's early childhood was spent in Rockport, Indiana but around the age of 7 he relocated with his mother Ruth and his stepfather, Herman Young, to Detroit, Michigan.

Edward attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Northwestern High School. He began his higher education at Wayne State University, until he was drafted into the United States Army.

After returning home, Edward became an employee of the U.S. Postal Service as a Mechanical Engineer. Edward was also an employee of both the Detroit Racing Course and the Hazel Park Raceway.

Edward was an avid enthusiast of Jazz music and followed many of the well-known Jazz artists and venues. Edward played the saxophone and dabbled at playing the piano.

Edward later met and married Kay Zehnder Morris. Two children were born to this union: George and Debra Lindsay.

Edward attended Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church as a young adult and then later joined Peoples Community Church along with his wife and family.

Edward was preceded in death by his parents and his son, George; his stepchildren Diane Morris and her son, Desmond Morris.

Edward leaves to cherish his memory, his loving daughter, Debra Martin (Gary) and granddaughter, Tiffany Martin. Edward also leaves two sisters, Karen and LaVera Young, both of Detroit, MI; his niece, Teresa Youngblood (Michael); great-niece, Cheyenne Nickelberry and great-nephew, Bryson Nickelberry. One remaining maternal aunt, Thema Lindsey of Rockport, IN; stepchildren William Morris (Brenda) and Denise Johnson (Walter Matthew); grandchildren, William Morris Jr., Heather Morris, Denarryl Rice, Erica Johnson, Chynna Johnson, Blake Johnson, Chad Johnson, and a host of other relatives and friends.
