“ Edward Williams, III has been a friend since middle school at Barbour Junior High and part of my extended family since graduation from Cass Tech High. I was one of the nerds he teased in the halls at school and the maid of honor when he married my best friend, Sandra Williams right out of high school. Uncle Ed and Aunt Sandy shared good times and bad times with me and my kids including fishing trips, picnics and just good old family time. My kids didn't know until they were adults that we weren't blood related, and I am glad he was around my boys to help instill some "manly values" with a little discipline, too. Today, his grown kids, Jemina Marie Willis, Lynnette Robinson and Ed Mercenary Williams are still my extended family and my heart goes out to them and theirs at this big loss in their lives. I'm sending prayers and love for them and all of the current Williams Clan.

“ ☐ While I did not have the honor of meeting you personally, I could feel that you were a gentle, loving, & supportive Soul. Mina talks about you all of the time, & the warmth in her voice when she speaks of you always put a smile on my face.

☐ I send my condolences to everyone that is hurting during very sensitive time. Please be kind, patient, and go e yourself grace; as an Angel has just gained his Heavenly Wings, and is now watching over all of you with his arms tightly wrapped around each of your Hearts.

☐ Rest Peacefully Mr. Williams. Love, Sincerely, Kendra G. West. 🕊️

“ Daddy, I miss you so much. I thank you for the sister & brother you blessed me with, to share memories, tears, and laughter. It feels so weird not having you here anymore. Everything is missing you in it, especially when me, Lynn & Eddie laugh together, because our laughter almost always included you. The impression you left truly has been equivalent of the void I feel now. I know that I will one day be healed, but right now, it still doesn't seem real 😞 I love you and I miss you so much, but for you, I can feel comfort in knowing that you are at peace ❤️

“ To Grace Williams and family please find comfort and knowing that he is at peace he would always kept that big beautiful smile on his face and I know that was because Grace was always cooking something delicious. I remember the day y'all got married. What a wonderful and beautiful occasion that was, I'm gonna miss that voice, but I think on the memories and laughs that we had at my expense Grace. I love you and continue to be strong. Love, Margie.

“ Dearest Williams Family,
While I didn't know Mr. Williams personally, I knew him through his son, Eddie. A special memory of Mr. Williams was one day, Eddie and I were on the phone talking stuff about something...probably music most likely...and he was hanging with dad that day. They were at the river and I happened to have called and Eddie answered. Somehow, Mr Williams and I ended up chatting and the three of us had a good time laughing about a number of things. I will remember that day fondly. I hope you all can find some level of comfort in that he touched many hearts, including mine.

May your father, your newest Guardian Angel, rest peacefully,

“ When you have a Daddy as amazing as ours, there is no single memory that is more treasured than another. He was always there, always present, always teaching, listening, guiding, providing, fixing, joking, laughing, LOVING us, and all of our children and grandchildren. He was so proud of his family. He was so good to us. He taught every one of us about God, and prepared us for the everlasting life which he has gone on to live. I find hope and strength in knowing that we will be with him again when God calls us home. I love you, Daddy, ALWAYS AND FOREVER!!!
