

Mrs. Elaine Marguerite Badgett

August 27, 1945 - December 31, 2014

Elaine Marguerite Badgett - whether referred to as Mommie, Momma B, Grandma, Ms. Tiger, Grandma Tiger, Miss Elaine, Auntie Lane or Night-Train Lane, was indeed a virtuous woman. Elaine was born in Detroit, MI on August 27, 1945 to Charles and Lois Badgett. And on December 31, 2014, they both opened their arms to her when she arrived in heaven.

Elaine had nine siblings; seven of them met her there as well: Delores, Charles, Charlotte, Walter, Beverly and Barbara. The joys of Elaine's life were her three daughters, Stephanie Ann (Peaches), Tausha Louise and Tynia Lynn. Tausha was also waiting for Mommie in heaven.

Elaine started her Christian journey at Friendship Baptist Church and continued as an adult at Exodus Missionary Baptist Church, where she served as a nurse and an usher. She often blessed the church members with her famous macaroni and cheese and german chocolate cakes. Elaine enjoyed her service for the Lord and would regularly pick up members for Sunday Morning Service – A VIRTUOUS WOMAN!

Elaine was educated in the Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Northeastern High School. She worked for many years downtown for Good Housekeeping Shops and later spent the remainder of her working years at Comcast Cablevision, from where she retired. At both locations she developed lifelong friendships.

Elaine was a hard worker, always willing to go above and beyond the call of duty – A VIRTUOUS WOMAN!

Elaine was fun loving and enjoyed watching Shirley Temple movies, cooking greens, eating lobster, wearing cute clothes, listening to the Trumpetettes and giving advice to all her “children.” She also loved spending time with her grandchildren, Justen, Timothy, Jeralyn, Daniel and David – A VIRTUOUS WOMAN!
