

Mrs. Elaine Jordan

December 24, 1942 - November 10, 2015

Her Journey:

Elaine Jordan was born on December 24, 1942 to the parents of Walter and Susie King. She was the youngest of six children.

Elaine attended the Detroit Public School system. While attending Northern High School, she matured and earned many accolades and participated in the school's typing club. Her speedy typing skills earned her a special feature in the Detroit News. It was said that she was the best typist in her class from the ninth grade to her senior year. Elaine had the ability to type 100 words per minute and over time her skill strengthened.

After graduating high school, Elaine attended Business School for Stenography. Here she received her court reporting license which had always been her dream and would become her career.

Elaine was employed with the Wayne County Circuit Court for 30 plus years, as a Court Reporter until her retirement in 2011. After her retirement she started her own free-lance court reporting service "Great Lakes Reporting." Which kept her up and busy many strange hours of the night and gave her, her night owl title!

She was joined in holy matrimony, on December 17, 1960 with the love of her life, Ernest Jordan. To this union four sons were born. When she wasn't typing transcripts she enjoyed sewing, bowling, and her absolute favorite things that actually brought a smile to her straight face demeanor, shopping at Sam's club and going to the casino. Elaine was always known for her elegant style of dressing whether it was Saturday at a picnic she was dressed with class. And she had a haircut that she kept to the most tip top shape that was a signature for her image.

Elaine made her transition on November 10, 2015.
