“ Daddy, thank you so much for molding me into the woman and person I am today. Through your teachings and our talks, I've learned so much. In observing how you treat others, I've learned the meaning of kindness and true love. You never judged anyone, you always accepted people for who they were. You believed that family was all that mattered and anything that did not fit that belief was not allowed around. You were an excellent, friend to me, father to me and a grandfather to my son. I thank you so much for it all and I pray that I have made you proud. I ask God to speak to my heart and help me to finish what your heart desired for your family, for you, and for the world.

Love you so much Daddy and I will miss your flesh because I know that your spirit is now with God. You are the true meaning of Father. Until we meet again,

“ We know your loss and our loss as a spiritual family is deep and your sorrow is great, but we want you to know that we share in your sorrow, but more importantly, we recognize that this loss is Heaven’s Gain. Let God’s power sustain you and bring you through this hour with the knowledge that His love will be your bond with him throughout eternity.##imported-begin##Elder and Mrs. Lawrence Matchett##imported-end##

“ I was sos orry to read about the loss of Henry, and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (John 5:28,29). Until that time please know you can rely on God for comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##T. Cherry##imported-end##
