

Ms. Eleanor Schultz

March 28, 1941 - October 23, 2016

In Loving Memory Of Eleanor Schultz:

Eleanor was born to Sarah Crenshaw in Greenville, Alabama on March 28, 1941. Sarah was very young and unfortunately she passed away when Eleanor was three years old. As a result, her grandparents, Cassana and Ben Crenshaw became her parents, and she became the apple of their eye and the love and joy of their life. Bay, as they called her attended Braggs Hill A.M.E. Zion Church, where she confessed Christ at a early age. She also attended Braggs Hill Public school until 8th grade, then Greenville Training School until she graduated in 1959. Eleanor's grandparents also raised two other children that became her siblings, Lamon (Pete), Virginia (Sister Bay), both residents of Detroit. She loved her grandparents dearly, however, Eleanor always dreamed of moving to Detroit once she graduated, to live with her mother's sister, Georgia Pierce who preceded her in death. After moving to Detroit, she joined the Navy, there she met and married George Schultz.

“ We have very fund memories of Eleanor. We grew up in a little place called Braggs Hill near Greenville, AL. Life was not easy there, everybody had to work hard, but those were the good ole days. It Taught us how to be strong, how to take of ourselves, and to face life's many challenges. We are suddenly going to miss her. To her children and grandchildren, lift up your heads, your mom was a beautiful personan she would want you all to go on and continue to live your lives as she has taught you. We all loved her. "Be not dismayed, God will take care of you" Our prayers and condolences are with you now and forever. Love, Douglas and Annie Evans, and the entire Patrick Family. (I'm Annie, the one who lived in Michigan and is now living in Pensacola, FL)
