“ Nora,

You will be truly missed. Although we aren't related by blood, we are family. It's been almost 30 years since we've know you through Sherron and you were family from day one. We have so many memories and laughter, I will keep those close. My sincere condolences to your son, husband and family members. Love you Nora!

“ To the Randall and Paul family, we were honored to know such a great woman of God and the comfort is knowing that she is waiting in heaven to meet and greet when the time comes. Sis. Paul was well loved and she will truly be missed. We are praying for the family and especially Jeremiah who was and always will be the apple of his mom's eye. May God continue to comfort you now and always.

“ Nora... You didn't like me too much when we first me. We used to argue all the time. But we eventually learned to respect each other and we became friends. I am glad that I have known you and I will miss your gumbo. Condolences to Rev. Paul and your family. May you rest in heavenly peace.
