

Mr. Elgen Levi Shorter

August 17, 1961 - March 19, 2013

His Journey.

Elgen Levi Shorter was born August 17, 1961 in Detroit, Michigan. Elgen is now with his father. He was the only son of the late Levi Shorter and Jimmie Shorter. He was the little brother to Dorothy and Phyllis and the big brother to Kimberly.

As a child, Elgen was very active and always getting into things. As a young man, he enjoyed listening to rock and roll, lifting weights and playing football. He attended Cass Technical High School and later transferred to Henry Ford High School to pursue his passion for playing football.

As a man, Elgen's passions revealed a kind-hearted person wanting to help people. He worked as a security officer at numerous places. He later decided to follow the footsteps of his father by working in transportation. Elgen enjoyed meeting and forming relationships with people he encountered while driving for Greater Detroit Cab Company. He spoke affectionately and often about the children that he transported to school everyday and the many people that depended on him to get to and from work.

Elgen often said that all he needed in life was "his knowledge." He had a strong knowledge of the Bible and current events. He was a longtime member and dutifully attended classes at the Institute of Divine Metaphysical

Research.
