“ For My Friend Liz

*The thing I'll remember most,
is your smile.
A smile that carried love so deep,
it wrapped every word you spoke of your family.*

*Your smile was light—
shining before you even said a word, brightening every room you walked into.*

*Your smile was peace—
because you were unapologetically you, reminding us all how beautiful it is to simply be ourselves.*

*We talked every single day,
and oh, how we could talk—
two voices weaving laughter and stories, time slipping away too quickly.*

*Now the silence feels heavy, but my heart holds onto
the joy of knowing you,
the warmth of your smile,
the blessing of your friendship.*

*Rest peacefully, Liz.
Your love, your light, your peace—
they will forever live in us.*

For the family, sending prayers of comfort and peace. 🙏

“ I never thought that I would have to rely on pictures and memories of you so soon in our lives. Though these times will bring me pleasure later on I find it hard to get through these days. From the start you held a special place in my heart that is only felt because of mother's love. I'm blessed because God chose me as one of your Godmothers. Rest on my angel God needs you for his army. Love and blessings on the family. Your Godmother Cynthia

“ Dear family: I remember Richard and Karen and miss them. I remember Ashleigh as a baby and a little girl. I did not get to know her as a young g woman. The family moved from Michigan, then I moved from Michigan. I will always remember Ashleigh’s smile, quietness, and her intelligence. May God comfort you all as you lay her to rest. Stick together, love and care for each other, and hold on to God. Love, Michele (godmother)
