

Ms. Elizabeth Ann Head II

April 18, 1989 - January 21, 2015

Celebration Of Life For A Child Of God:

I was born Elizabeth Ann Head II on April 18, 1989 in Chicago, Illinois. The youngest of two children born to devout and loving Christian parents, Dr. John W. Head Jr. and Patricia Head. We moved from Chicago, Illinois to Detroit, Michigan in 1995, where I spent most of my elementary and teenage years.

My family and I joined Straight Gate International Church in 1999 where I was later baptized. As a young child I valued family bonds while maintaining a strong relationship with God and the church. I volunteered in the Precious Lambs Nursery and was an integral part of Virtuous Daughters at Straight Gate International Church.

I attended Shrine Catholic High School, and was on the National Honor Society Honor Roll all four years, graduating in 2007. While at Shrine I had a strong passion for sports. I played for the JV and Varsity basketball, track and a member of SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions), and competitive choir member for four years with a division one rating. I performed in the annual hootenanny talent show all four years. During my junior and senior year I worked at Franklin Fountain in Southfield, Michigan serving the elderly.

I later went on to attend Loyola University in Chicago, Illinois majoring in biology with the aspiration of practicing medicine like both of my parents and graduating with my degree in biology. While at Loyola University, I joined Alpha Chi Omega in 2008, where I had the privilege of sharing sisterhood with some of the most fabulous, smart, and diverse group of women that I have ever met.

My parents and sibling, John W. Head III were very instrumental figures in my life. They say the prayers of a mother avail much and my mother inspired me to get on my knees every night and pray. My dad taught me the value of hard work and perseverance. My brother who is my everything, my best friend and confidant allowed me to be myself. We could talk about any and everything.

Although my time on this earth was short, God saw fit to call one of his angels home on January 21, 2015. From earth to glory I went.

“ My condolences to you Dr. Head and family. I used to ride with Your mother back and forward to work in the “smooth ride” ever (the tan Cadillac) you bought which she reminded my of daily. She talked of You and her grandchild often, remember her telling me of her drives back and forward to Michigan, I remember one instead were she had to get her car fix and your wife took the car to do so. I went online looking for her and came across your daughter so sorry for your lost

“ I am so sorry to hear of Lisa's passing! I remember her fondly playing basketball with Jennie at Shrine. I spent many hours with Patricia and John II during John's senior year. I will miss her smile, her laugh and her unbridled tenacity!. She was a wonderful woman! With much love, Stephanie Spencer

“ Elizabeth or Lisa as she directed me to call her when she walked up to me in the sixth grade, was one of my best friends for many years. Death makes you reflect on things you don't take time to think about in your daily life. I experienced so many things with her through my early years and teens. My first trip to NY without parental supervision was with her, she had to convince my mom we would be safe and stick together and my mom trusted Lisa at her word and let me go. My first concert was with her, we saw the rapper Nelly. My mom again had reservations on letting me go, but my mom has a sweet spot for Lisa and all she had to tell my mom is, "We will be fine Ms. Lesley." There are so many things Lisa, me and the rest of our friends did together over the years, too many to list. I'm glad for all the experiences, even the ones that weren't so great. No matter how much time has passed since we last spoke I know we always had Love for each other. RIP Elizabeth Ann Head
I Love You ❤️

“ To the Head Family: I pray that God's love penetrates the deepest part of your heart and soul that is hurting. May He give you peace, comfort, strength and healing that you need at this difficult time. God has promised never to leave nor forsake us, no matter what. Believe that to be true. I will continue to keep you in my prayers.

Love you, Rhonda Fields & Family (SGIC)

“ They say the good die young in your case yes that's true. Your smile will forever be embedded in my mind, your smile always lit up a room. Growing up with you was such a pleasure we always laughed and never had a dull moment. I am glad my grandparents came to every basketball game we had at SMM I can forever watch you light up the court. Our memories will last forever!
