

Mrs. Ella Sellers

July 4, 1922 - May 14, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Ella Sellers:

For we know that if this earthly house were dissolved, we have a building of God, not made with a hands eternal in the heavens. II Corinthians 5:1

Ella Sellers was born in Natchez, Mississippi on July 4, 1922 to the late William and Ruth Jackson. Ella was the second of 12 children, six of her siblings preceded her in death.

The Jackson household was a place where everyone felt welcomed. With 12 children around, there was always plenty of laughter, good food and plenty of company.

Ella was a dietary aide at Zeigler Hospital in the city of Detroit. After working 30 years, she retired and enjoyed living with family and friends until her health began to fail.

Ella's parents instilled the love of God in her heart at an early age. This was evidenced in her life as she served family, friends, her church, usher board, P.E./J.E. King and Sunday school ministries.

Ella had an "I'm in charge walk, talk and look. Her smile and laughter was contagious. Ella was a quiet soul ... until you pushed her. One of her favorite pastimes was cooking. She loved to cook for her family and friends.

Ella had a way that encouraged others with her strength. At worst of times, she never complained. We always heard her say, "I'm okay and don't worry it's going to be alright!"

Her favorite song was, "I will Trust in the Lord Until I Die."

Ella met and married Russell Sellers who raised her son, Edward, as his own. They loved each other dearly, there were no children born to this union. However, God saw fit to call Russell home in 1996 and Edward in 2006.

Thursday, May 14, 2015 at 3:22 a.m. at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, Michigan, Ella quietly received her crown from labor to eternal reward in heaven.
