“ To the family! You all have my sincere condolences. Just the other day, I called his phone to wish him a Happy Birthday...and he didn't answer...then I said Oh he will call me back, not knowing that God has called him to home to glory. Elmer and my father Amos were great friends, working buddy at AKZO, more so family. We spent many years visiting Elmer and Olivia at they home in Detroit. Just one year ago, we buried my father Amos and Elmer took it really hard. He called me to check in on me often within this last year and I truly appreciated him for that. I hope they are in heaven, catching up, laughing, joking, and enjoying each other's company. They both will be truly missed. Praying for you all, this really has touch my heart.
