“ Aunt Elsie is the sister of my father James E. Simmons of Phila Pa. I can remember waiting for Aunt Elsie’s plane to land as a little girl on her many visits to Philadelphia to see my Nana her mother Mary Simmons. Even as an adult I always anticipated her arrival and couldn’t wait to see her. Aunt Elsie is the reason I know how to bake with each visit she taught me something new to do in the kitchen. She was always always good to me and she will be forever loved and missed. Love Always Julie Ann

“ To My Cousins:

Aunt Elsie always was the heart and rock of the family. My heart is full of good memories, and my family and I will miss her dearly. You never know the degree of inspiration that a person can place upon you, but Aunt Elsie's, warm hugs, smiles and her voice of reason will always rings loud and clear to me. When I had the opportunity to visit Detroit, she always greeted me with the warmth of her heart and open arms. Can you imagine that: I felt her smiles, during my occasional phone conversations, as if I was there talking to her in person. Oh yes, she will be dearly missed, but we all can be comforted that she is at peace and at home with our Heavenly Father. "God Bless you all during our time of sorrow."

My deepest sympathy to the entire Larkins family. God has called home one of HIS ANGELS. I will always carry with me the wisdom that she s freely shared with me, I can still hear her standing up in service and saying "I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth".

God Bless the family during this time and beyond.
