

Mrs. Emma Pearl Stanfield

September 29, 1929 - January 15, 2015

Her Journey:

Emma Pearl Terrell was born on September 26, 1929 in Memphis, Tennessee to James Andrew and Ella Mae Terrell. She was the sixth of seven girls her, sisters were Rachel, Evelyn, James Ella, Helen, Doris Jean and Barbara they all preceded her in death. She relocated to Detroit, Michigan with her family in her early teens. Emma attended and loved Pershing High School.

She met and married her lifelong love in Detroit, MI, Warren Curtis Stanfield Sr. known by all as Bob. They enjoyed many years of marital bliss until God called him home.

Emma was an extraordinary achiever status, "Par Excellence." She had a true entrepreneurial spirit. For many years she operated a home based embroidery business for several metropolitan Detroit area sporting goods stores. Her second career was the manager of Young's Foods, providing food services to several school districts and city and state programs.

She was passionate about gardening, antiques, as well as watching programs that involved animals. Emma was an absolute perfectionist in all her endeavors including sewing, cooking, upholstery and decorating. In most recent years she was very active at the Center for Senior Independence Program (CSI). She loved and gave her best to everyone until God called her home January 15, 2015.

“ We send out our sincere condolences to the Family; May the Glory of God forever cast his shadow over all of you. Emma Pearl as my family (Landrum) affectionately referred to her was a true friend, who the Lord sent into our lives at an early age. She was my best friend then and she remained my best friend for over a quarter of a century. It has been said, that the true test of friendship is time, and I can truly testify that the Lord showed me that now that he has called home one of his angel's. "John 15:12-13 "
