“ To the King Family:

On behalf of the WSU Office of Internal Audit, I would like to extend our deepest sympathies in the lost of First Lady Emogene King. I new Mrs. King to be a grand lady full of class, dignity, and sophistication. She had a kind and warm spirit that made you feel as though she was your own grandmother. During the many years that I've worked with Kamilla, she lovingly and fondly talked about her grandmother on a regular basis. When we recently attended the Pastor's Anniversary luncheon, I had the opportunity to see her comical side, but to also see her loving side particularly for her children and her husband, Rev. King (AKA, "Rev. Granddaddy). I know that Mrs. King will be sorely missed, but please find comfort in knowing that God does know best and she is enjoying her reward in heaven now. Celebrate her life and her love and find peace in knowing that you too will see her again in heaven!!! If there is anything we can do, please do not hesitate to call on your WSU IA family.

*With Love,
Carolyn P. Hafner, AVP
WSU Internal Audit*
