

Mrs. Eoler Williams

December 21, 1943 - May 15, 2016

Eoler Williams entered this world on December 21, 1943 in Round Pond, Arkansas. She and her twin sister, Ioler were born to the late Ernestine Rodgers and David Cupil. Her brother, Jerry Jerome Wilson, and sisters Alisha Wilson and Joann Weathers, preceded her in death.

Eola, as she was affectionately called, was educated in the Arkansas Public School System, where she attended Mildred Jackson High School in Round Pond and graduated in June, 1964. After graduation, Eola moved to Chicago, Illinois and would later return to Widener, Arkansas and married Charlie Williams on May 9, 1965. To this union their son Jerry Jerome was born. After returning to Chicago for a period of time, she decided to relocate to Detroit, Michigan in 1967.

After working a few jobs in Detroit, Eola was hired at General Motors Corporation in 1972 as an assembler. She devoted over 30 years of hard work to the company before retiring.

Eola accepted Christ and united with Hicks Temple Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Elder Hicks. She later became a member of Evangel Ministries under the leadership of Pastor Christopher Brooks.

Eola enjoyed sewing and making her own clothes. Anyone who knew her knew she had a love for cooking and baking. Eola's passion for baking was remarkable! She enjoyed baking rolls, German Chocolate cake, Cheesecake, Egg-custard pies, and donuts. All homemade!! Eola made sure you would enjoy her treats and want more!!

On Sunday, May 15, 2016, Eola received her release from this earthly life to her Heavenly reward.
