“ So many memories of the many good times we shared with so many laughs. Basketball, baseball, four squares in the street on Cloverlawn and shooting pool in the basement. We fought all the time, but we always made sure each of us knew we were loved. Your family is my family. Debbie was my best friend since childhood and I loved her like a sister, just like I loved you like brother. I will truly miss you teasing me and I will treasure those thoughtful memories for ever. No more worries, because you ran a great race and God said “job well done, now you can come home and rest”!
Love you Eric Patterson
