“Ernie never failed to brighten my day when we worked together at at&t Southfield. He was a "walking encyclopedia" on a variety of topics! His smile, laugh and sweet spirit were a true blessing!

“Ernest Jones, you are so missed. I miss your phone calls of us talking old times. Ernest could remember some of the old times that made me laugh until I cried. A man that truly loved his wife and son he was so proud of his family. Ernest knew he was blessed to have the love of his family. The Jones family I send you my condolences.

My dear family, we share the loss of Ernest, our loved one. The joys and memories he gave all of us over the years will help us commit him to the only one who loves him more than we do, our Heavenly Father. He's at rest now, our watch angel, loving and caring for his family as he always did.
