

Mr. Ernest E. Yharbrough

April 6, 1955 - January 10, 2024

On April 6, 1955 in Detroit, Michigan, a precious little boy was born to Delores and Ernest Yharbrough whom both preceded him in death. Ernest accepted Christ at an early age.

He was a member of the Word of Truth Church which is under the leadership of Pastor Rufus Hayes.

Ernest finished high school at Cody High School and he went on to obtain an associate degree in culinary arts. Ernest loved to cook. Even though he went to culinary school, he was a supervisor for S.P. Richard for 13 years. They moved out of town. He went to truck driving school where he drove over the road.

After that, his wife, Kathy Yharbrough's health started to decline. He took up a factory job close to home to care for her. After her passing, Ernest's health started to decline. He had several stokes. Ernest was a kind and humble man. He would not argue with anyone. He would quickly tell you "I'm a peace loving man, soft spoken, very quiet." Ernest loved his family. He helped to care for his mom and brother-in-law, Kenneth Pankey.
