

Mrs. Esther Ree Pippen

September 13, 1960 - July 18, 2025

Esther Ree Pippen was born September 13, 1960 in Detroit, Michigan to the late Elder Albert Sr. and Rosetta Washington. Esther was the youngest of nine children. Seven siblings preceded her in death. Esther was educated in the Detroit Public Schools System where she graduated.

Esther gave her life to Christ at an early age. Esther's family joined Love Temple COGIC. Esther loved going to church and singing in Love Temple's choir. Esther married James Terry Jr., and four sons were born from this union James III, Robert, Allen, and Carlos.

Esther worked at various jobs throughout her career serving the public including working at Burlington Coat Factory, Securitas Security Company, Detroit Metro Airport and Satilla Memorial Health facility in Waycross, Georgia. Esther remarried to the love of her life Eric Pippen Sr. and from this union one son was born, Jeremiah. Esther served at Mission of Love church for many years. She led testimony services, ushered, and gave warm welcomes to visitors.

Esther often helped the church raise funds and grow by cooking and selling dinners. Esther was a good cook and known for her famous macaroni and cheese. Esther loved to pray and often attended Friday all-night prayer meetings. Esther would praise and worship God unashamedly. Esther loved spending time with her family and would often call to check on her relatives. Esther touched the lives of many and will be remembered for her smile, her laughter, and her soft-spoken voice.

Esther was preceded in death by her father Albert Sr., and her mother Rosetta Washington, two brothers, Willie O. Washington, Albert Washington Jr., and five sisters: Hattie L. Jones, Emma Hendrix, Rosie Mckinney, Shirley Character, Anne Taylar.

Esther leaves to cherish her loving memory, her husband Eric Phippen Sr., five sons, James III, Robert, Allen, and Carlos Terry, Jeremiah Phippen Sr. (Naomi), her stepson, Eric Mosely Sr. (Angie), seven grandchildren, Jeremiah Jr., Jayveon, Jacob, Aubrey, Zoey, Daylon, Eric III, five great-grandchildren, her beloved sister Delores Norris, and a host of nieces, nephews, in-laws, family and friends.
