

Mrs. Ethel Maude Herron

October 3, 1929 - February 10, 2018

Her Story:

Ethel Maude Herron was born in Toronto, Canada on October 2, 1929 to her loving and hardworking parents, Clement and Irene Prescott who emigrated to Canada from the West Indies. She met her beloved husband, the late Leroy Herron, Jr. and relocated to his hometown of Detroit, Michigan where they built their home and life together. She decided to get her college education there and eventually received her Masters Degree in education from Wayne State University. She went on to work as a special education teacher with Farmington Public Schools for many years. Teaching was her passion and she left an indelible mark on the lives of many students during her tenure. She was also a very active member of the MEA (Michigan Education Association) and the NEA (National Education Association).

In her spare time, Ethel greatly enjoyed traveling with her family. Her favorite vacations were to Las Vegas, Hawaii, Germany, the Caribbean, and on an Alaskan Cruise. She loved to read books. It was her favorite pastime. She found joy in sewing and once even worked as a seamstress. She also baked the best homemade apple pies around! Ethel will be remembered for her love for and devotion to God, for her spirited nature, and for her heart for helping and giving to those in need.
