“ Mrs. Etta Jean Thomas White became my sister-in-law in 1964. For more than 40 years she became my sister-in-love. Etta was such a kind-hearted, giving soul. Another piece of my husband's heart is broken. My prayer is that we'll be able to rid the heaviness in our hearts and exchange it for a garment of praise. HE is able!

“ Mrs. White was an extraordinary person that had a positive impact on so many lives. In my 20 plus years in education, I don't think I've ever come across someone more genuine, committed, and caring for kids. Mrs. White was forever the professional...a model of excellence. I watched Mrs. White time and time again gain the respect of the most hardened boys and girls through dedication, hard-work, and a spirit of love. My condolences to the White Family.
