

Mr. Eugene Doran Coleman

December 26, 1954 - February 19, 2017

Celebrating The Life Of Eugene Doran Coleman:

Eugene D. Coleman, son of the late Essie L. and Eugene C. Coleman, was born on December 26, 1954 in Detroit, Michigan.

Eugene loved the Lord and accepted Christ at an early age. Eugene attended the Detroit Public School System, graduating from Mumford High School. He later went on to study Labor Studies at the University of Michigan.

Eugene began his employment with the United States Postal Service on June 19, 1976. He started as a clerk, and later following his passion for people became a full-time steward for the APWU-DDAL. Eugene was later elected by his peers to serve two terms as the Executive Vice President of the APWU-DDAL. Eugene loved people. He never met anyone that he considered to be a stranger. Everyone that knew him loved him. Eugene retired from the USPS in 2004. Still desiring the need for that stimulation from the conversation of others, he began working part-time at Metro-Cars.

On October 17, 1998 Eugene married the love of his life. Eugene and Dannie were united in Holy Matrimony and remained in love like teenagers for 18 years. Eugene was always going to be one of the first people with the latest gadget. He enjoyed all types of electronics and anything that stimulated his brain. If he was watching television, it was ESPN, CNN, or MSNBC. He was the “Go To” person if you wanted to understand anything regarding Bills in Congress or anything in the Legislative process. In his leisure time, he enjoyed traveling with his wife and spending time with his family.

Eugene departed this life on February 19, 2017 in Sebring, Florida surrounded by family and friends.
