

Mr. Eugene Jackson

May 16, 1947 - October 17, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of Eugene Jackson:

Eugene Jackson was born on May 16, 1947 to the union of Ivory Jackson and Mabel Jackson in Detroit, Michigan. Eugene was the third child of ten children. He joined church at an early age. He graduated from Wilbur Wright High School in June 1965 where he was very athletic. After high school, he was drafted to the U.S. Army and after basic training, he was sent to Saigon in Vietnam. After serving in the Army, his first job was at the Bud Wheeler Company before he was hired at General Motors in 1969 where he worked until he retired.

Gene was a fun, caring, lovable, partying person. Some may know him as Action Jackson.

On October 17th, the Lord called Gene home.
