

Ms. Eva L. Burns

November 23, 1933 - May 3, 2015

In Remembrance Of Our Beloved Eva Lee Burns:

Eva was born in Smackover, Arkansas on November 23, 1933. She was born to Cleveland Burns Sr. and Una Burns. Eva was the eldest of three children. She had one brother and one sister, Cleveland Burns Jr. who preceded her in death and Ruby Jenkins. Eva gave her life to God at an early age.

Eva had a great passion for sports she played basketball and volleyball in her high school days. She even earned a basketball scholarship to play basketball at Texas A&M. That followed her way into her golden years where she enjoyed watching basketball cheering for the Pistons and tennis rooting for her favorites Serena and Venus Williams.

Eva settled in Detroit after college where she was joined in matrimony with Otis Havis Sr. where she would become a matriarch of a large family that they created. Eva, better known as "MA or MAMA" to many had a beautiful soul. She was known for her good nature, great cooking and one of her specialties was her amazing dressing she cooked for the holidays, and she loved being with her children for any and every occasion.

Eva was preceded in death by two children, Beverly Havis and Ricky Havis and one grandchild, Latoya Havis.

At the age of 81 Eva decided to answer God's calling to a final resting place on May 3, 2015.

Tribute Wall

“ Ms. Eva L. Burns

---

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM