

Mrs. Eva Mae Ladson

December 4, 1925 - December 3, 2016

The Journey

Eva Mae Williams was born on December 4, 1925 in Salley, SC. Eva was the third youngest of eleven children born to the union of Gus and Tacora Williams. Her parents and all of her siblings preceded her in death.

Eva accepted Christ at an early age. Upon moving to New York, she joined Antioch Baptist Church in Jamaica, New York, where she was a devoted member for over 60 years until she moved to Detroit with her family. As a member, Eva enjoyed traveling with the members of the South Carolina Club. Most of all, she took so much pride in providing service at various church functions, as a member of the hospitality committee.

Eva was united in holy matrimony with Christopher Ladson in 1949. To this union, two children were born, Fayettea and Harold. God blessed this union for more than 67 years.

Eva worked as a domestic housekeeper where she provided services for the same family for over 50 years. She would get up every morning to catch the bus and/or subway to work, until her retirement at the age of 80. Eva was a mild mannered woman, who always had the same demeanor. If she was having a bad day, you never knew it because when asked she would always say, "I'm fine." Eva loved traveling and spending time with family and friends.

She was so proud of her family and loved to brag about her "grands."

Eva peacefully made her transition at home with her family on December 3, 2016.
