“ Mrs. Evelyn Steele also known as momma or Sweet Cakes was my loving caring Grandmother who was encouraging in comforting. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt ever one loved Mrs. Steele I have never heard my grandmother raise her voice. She always was calm cool and collective. My grandmother was a classy woman who carried herself with pride and dignity. She had a green thumb and could grow corn as tall as the sky. Always enjoyed eating her vegetables from her garden. My Grandmother will truly be missed . She took a piece of my heart with her . I admire and cherish her wisdom and the blessings she stored upon me. She was a strong black Woman I just pray I inherited her strength. I love you momma from the bottom of my heart. My heart was not ready for you to Leave but your wings where . I know you will watch over me . Rest in paradise. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
