

Mrs. Evloise Donald Jakes

November 29, 1924 - November 10, 2020

In Loving Memory Of:

Evloise Donald was born on November 29, 1924 in Mississippi to Willie Donald and Irene Stubling. Evloise accepted Christ at an early age.

Evloise worked as a housekeeper for a doctor in Farmington Hills for 10 years. She also used to baby-sit for her friends while they were at work. She would have 8 kids at one time ranging from the age of 1-6 years old.

Evloise was joined in holy matrimony with Robert Lee Jakes and to this union one son was born, Robert Edward. Prior to this marriage three daughters were born, Joann, Paulette and Pauline.

Evloise loved to sew and cook. She made pillows and blankets by hand.

Everyone loved her peach cobbles, sweet potato pies, pound cakes, biscuits and macaroni and cheese. She collected rocks, coffee cups, figurines and stuffed animals. She was a people person and would help in any situation.

Evloise lived in River Towers Apartments for over 20 years and participated in events and clubs. The whole building knew her and loved her kindness. When people ask how she was doing she would respond pretty good for a young one!
