

Ms. Evon Ramsey

November 20, 1961 - August 18, 2013

Evon Ramsey is one of five daughters born to Mrs. Mary Ramsey (the baby) as we often called her.

She was educated in the Detroit Public Schools system and attended Henry Ford Community College.

She was the business woman of the family becoming a rental property owner, stylist and caterer. She never believed in going outside and not looking her very best. However her greatest love was cooking. Evon was born to cook, and everyone who tasted her food was hooked. Her goal was to become a master chef and open a restaurant in Paris, France.

However, God called her home before she could achieve this goal. We know she is the Head Chef In Charge in Heaven.

“ Dear Ramsey Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.

To my best friend Jacqueline. It was such a pleasure to know and share fun times with Evon. She was such a sweet beautiful lady. I will especially treasure the memory of the last time we were together and Evon and I hugged and told each other we loved each other. Looking forward to the day when we will have that big celebration in heaven. God rest her soul. I love you and all your sisters and thank God for making them a part of my life. I know our Heavenly Father will see you thru this very difficult time. I'm here for you if you need me.
