“ My condolences to the entire Terry, Brewer & Towns families. I cannot begin to express the grief that I feel for the young lady that had so much spunk in her life. When i saw her photo, I saw Lurlene! It is amazing, that just looking at her, brought back so many memories. I hope that you all understand that any pain and suffering that Aunt Exie was experiencing is gone now. She is able to finally Rest In Peace! But family, don't despair, the Holy Scriptures comfort us in this sorrowful time. Revelations 21:3-5. With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” 5 And the One seated on the throne said: “Look! I am making all things new.” Also he says: “Write, for these words are faithful and true.”

I love you, Aunt Exie! Take care my family, and we will unite soon to celebrate her life and not the sorrow of her death.

“ *To the Brewers and Towns families: I'm so sorry the family had to go through this most difficult and trying time. My prayers are with you. Aunt Exie gave of herself and asked for nothing back (this is what I remembered most about her).
