

Ms. Fannie Lee Marshall

February 23, 1959 - August 13, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Fannie Lee Marshall was born February 23, 1959, to the late Joe Henry Taylor and the late Bonnie Sue Wingo. She departed her life on Tuesday, August 13, 2024 at her home.

She accepted Christ at an early age at Travelers Best Missionary Baptist Church. She was an active member of Resurrection Ministries Church of Deliverance where she served as the treasurer and as an Usher. She also volunteered at the church's food bank.

Fannie loved her family and friends. She was especially proud of her children Derrick and Alissia. Fannie was a person that stood out in a crowd. A person people wanted to know. Fannie was a giver who was always willing to help anyone. She loved to dance and hang out, take pictures, and make the best out of any situation. She loved to cook, play spades, and watch sports. Fannie loved fashion! Her hair and makeup was always on point. She worked at various jobs throughout Detroit. From being a usher at Joe Louis Arena, and a teacher aide at Hanneman Elementary, to her last job at Carlisle Engineered as a quality auditor/inspector.

Her parents, her sister Shirley Faye Johnson, brother-in-law James Johnson, four uncles, and five aunts preceded her in death.

Fannie leaves to cherish her memories, one daughter Alissia Marshall and one son Derrick Marshall, both of Detroit, Michigan; two sisters, Alma Herd (Robert) of Maben, Mississippi, and Amy Marshall of Detroit, Michigan; two brothers, Willie Marshall (Lisa) and Freddie Marshall, both of Detroit, Michigan; five grandsons, Cameron Marshall, Jordan Lloyd, Demario Marshall, and Trevon Thompson, Alonté Renfro, all of Detroit, Michigan; one granddaughter, Aaliyah Marshall of Detroit, Michigan; two great-grandsons, Jordyn Lee Hopkins and Mercellus Hester, both of Detroit, Michigan; two great-granddaughters, Journey and Harmony Marshall, both of Detroit, Michigan, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives.
