

Mr. Farrell Demar Hall

August 23, 1979 - January 23, 2014

The Legacy Of Farrell Hall:

Farrell D. Hall was born on August 23, 1979 in Detroit, Michigan to Gloria Jean Hall and James Ronald Neal. As a child, Farrell was given the name “Red” from Aunt Frances, which followed him throughout his lifetime. Farrell confessed Christ at an early age.

Farrell received his education through the Detroit Public Schools system. He received a trade in landscaping. Later on Farrell invested his time in his own janitorial company.

Farrell married the love of his life LaShawna Hall, from their union was the blessing of one daughter, China Edwards-Hall and twin boys, Farrell Jr and Terrell Hall. His children were the center of his world.

Farrell will always be remember as a husband, father, son, brother and friend.

Farrell enjoyed shopping with his wife, watching sports, outings with his children and hanging with family and friends. Farrell was no cooker, but he tried to please his family. Farrell was always about business, but always put family first. Farrell had a big heart and loved to joke around. He was the soul and backbone of his family.
