“ We were very sorry to hear of the passing of Father Ron. We met Father while he was at Our Lady Queen of Peace Parish. He was alot of fun for our son Ryan and his friends. He also married Ryan at Queen of Peace some years ago. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at the sad time and Father Ron will be in our prayers always.

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 1: 3, 4.##imported-begin##x##imported-end##

“ Father Ron will be truly missed, he was an inspiration to me years ago when I was in St. Mary's of Redford High school, I was proud that we had a african american Priest, I was so dumb I didnt even realize that it was possible for a black man to be one! He was always smiling and always had a kind word. I am proud to have known him.##imported-begin##Jane Gordon##imported-end##

“ Fr. Ron was much loved by the people and students of St. Mary of Redford where I worked for three years. Their love and respect were evident in the numbers of its parishioners who participated in his funeral mass today. The mass was a true celebration of faith, ministry and inclusivity. May perpetual light shine upon Fr. Ron.

“ I met Ron as a Deacon at St. Kevin parish in the late 70s, my family attended his ordination, he married my wife and I and two of my Sisters as well. He performed funeral services for my Mom and was a great friend of my entire family. All of us already miss him terribly. Our hearts go out to you. Know that he's smiling down on all of us now.##imported-begin##Bob Biess##imported-end##

“ Fr. Ron was, and still is, the man. I will never forget all the awesome things that he did with me and my family. i will always remember the tours at selfridge, watching the pistons win the nba championship at his apartment, and going to see all the Star Wars movies. i will definitaly miss the 10 minute christmas masses at our house too, those were key! The thing I enjoyed about Fr. Ron the most was his genuine attitude. whenever we hung out, he was always the happiest person in the room. I just want Fr. Ron to know that he will be loved and missed by more people than anyone can possibly imagine. i will for sure###imported-begin##Kevin Brisbois##imported-end##

“ Father Ron:

Rest in peace my friend. You meant so much to me and I will miss you. There is not a day that goes by where your influence on my faith and my person does not impact someone in this world.

Thank you and I will see you again someday.

“ Ron was always so special to me throughout our years in high school and beyond. When I knew he was headed for the priesthood I told him I wanted him to be at my wedding...and he was. I will always treasure his kindness, compassion, sense of humor, his intelligence, musical talents and his love of the Lord. I feel he was wrongfully accused by the church and suffered here on earth for many years afterward. May he truly rest in peace and feel the love of God around him at all times. I know your family suffered and I will pray for all of you during this trying time. May the Lord comfort all of you. Ron will be a Saint I will pray to often. “ Father Ron, you will truly be missed. I've known you since my early days at St. Mary's Grade School and into adulthood. We know that God knows the truth and that is all that matters. Only He can judge you. You are with the Father God now, the one you loved serving and will continue to do so even in the afterlife. May your soul rest in peace.##imported-begin##Betty Murray & Valyrie Murray-Wright##imported-end##

“ From altar boy days, to the baptism of my three daughters, to marrying my wife and I on a perfect late autumn evening, the wonderful memories flow. It's as if I was sitting down at a table with you this very moment, reminiscing. A great loss. I pray for your peace, Fr. Ron; that is who I met all those years ago and that is who you will always be to me. God bless you.###imported-begin###Marc Cormier###imported-end###
