“ I am so sorry for the loss of a true Champ. I met Ferdale in 2003 just before I moved here. He was always encouraging to all of us even if he knew that your idea might not quite work out he would say " Well if that's what you think will work try it and see". Ferdale thank you for everything You will truly be missed. To his kids keep your heads up and remember your father's legacy. For legacy is not material things left by him but it is his Story. Much Love Bryan Nesbitt

“ To Daddy;

The bond we share is undoubtedly thee BEST, we accepted one another flawed and our love was unconditional. We endured lots of laughs, unexpected smiles as well as tears and frowns, and we never left each others side. You taught me to give unselfishly, to put others before myself, embrace children whether they're family members or strangers, but above all; you taught me the most important skill that a man can teach a woman "how to love a man unconditionally". You told me " you will not be like these other chics, go to school". Daddy it's because of you, I acquired a Masters Degree, because of you, I know that I can do anything. You encouraged and pushed me to my highest potential. Just hearing you say "you will be different, and I'm going to make sure" pushed me to be different. I can never repay you for your amazing love and support. Although you're not my father, you will always be Daddy to me.
